

Sowing Your Seeds of Service

A close-up photograph of a person's hand sowing seeds into dark, rich soil. The hand is positioned on the right side of the frame, with fingers gently releasing small, light-colored seeds into the earth. The background is a soft-focus view of the soil, creating a sense of depth and focus on the act of sowing.

- . The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others. ...
- . To give real service you must add something which cannot be bought or measured with money, and that is sincerity and integrity. ...
- . Everyone has a purpose in life and a unique talent to give to others.

'God will not forget your work and the love you have shown him as you have helped his people and continue to help them.' Hebrews 6:10
